Alderman Knight School's Offer of Early Help

Designated Safeguarding Leads (DSL) – Clare Steel, Alex Cameron & Ceri Jones
Safeguarding Governor – Patrick Fay

What is Early Help?

'Early help' is an umbrella term that describes the work of many agencies engaged with children and families including health services, schools, learning providers, local authorities, voluntary sector, children and family centres, police, housing providers and many others. We are all engaged to a greater or lesser extent in work that seeks to avert a problem developing and preventing difficulties from escalating or the deterioration of circumstances which could adversely affect children, young people and their families.

Early Help is also about focussing on how we can help people to do things for themselves and build on strengths within families. If we can get this right early on, at the right time, we get the opportunity to help people with areas of their life they may be struggling with, which sets people up for a better long-term future. It is also about providing support at any and every stage of a child's life; pre-birth, during pregnancy, childhood and/or adolescence. Early help means providing support as soon as a problem emerges, at any point in a child's life, from the foundation years through to the teenage years. Early help can also prevent further problems arising; for example, if it is provided as part of a support plan where a child has returned home to their family from care, or in families where there are emerging parental mental health issues or drug and alcohol misuse.

Effective early help relies upon local organisations and agencies working together to:

- Identify children and families who would benefit from early help
- Undertake an assessment of the need for early help
- Provide targeted early help to address the assessed needs of a child and their family which focuses on activity to improve the outcomes for the child voluntary process.
- Early Help can be offered to children and young people aged 0-19 (25 SEND).

Principles of Early Help

- Seeing the child, young person or family first, not the difficulty
- Feeling listened to and enabled to be part of the solution
- A joined-up approach that helps the whole family now and into the future
- A reduction in the multiple times families are asked for the same information
- A reduction in the amount and variety of assessments and plans which can lead to confusion
- A more transparent and meaningful approach to how we identify needs early and direct resources to meet outcomes

Who Provides Early Help?

Alderman Knight School form part of Gloucestershire's wider Early Help Partnership. Early Help Partnerships have been developed within each locality across Gloucestershire. The Early Help Partnerships build on existing arrangements and services already in place, working together to share resources to meet the local needs of children, young people and their families. All those working with children, young people and their families form part of the Early Help Partnership within each area. Early Help partnerships are made up of a whole range of people from a variety of settings including; schools, colleges, health services, children’s services, charities, voluntary organisations, police, activity providers, housing providers and youth services.

In addition to above, the school addresses individual types of abuse within school in the following ways:

- Child Sex Exploitation – the school are competent in using the Child Sexual Exploitation Screening Tool and will make referrals as necessary. The Chelsea’s Choice production is run on a two-yearly cycle and e-safety policy and practice is regularly reviewed. Staff have received training around CSE
- Bullying (including cyber bullying), Gangs and Youth Violence
- Drugs – drug misuse is addressed through the revised PSD curriculum
- Fabricated or induced Illness – the school’s Attendance Policy facilitates the identification of regular absentee’s. Parental meetings are co-ordinated to ascertain the reasons for regular absence.
- Mental Health – A number of staff have undertaken the Mental Health First Aid training as well as Therapeutic counselling. Where concerns are greater, referrals are made to CAMHS. Children are made aware through the tutor-taught PSD units on Emotional Well-being, Resilience, Anger Management and Mindfulness.
- Radicalisation and extremist behaviour – senior staff have received the WRAP Prevent training and filter information down to all staff. All staff have completed Prevent training courses.
- Female Genital Mutilation and Forced Marriage – all staff know and understand what FGM is and the signs/indicators. The DSL has undertaken the Home Office FGM training.
- Gender-based violence or violence against women or girls is addressed in the Chelsea’s Choice production shown on a two-yearly cycle to the appropriate KS3, KS4 and KS5 pupils.

Trafficking	Serious crime which must be reported to Nigel Hatton (Gloucestershire LADO) & the Gloucestershire Police. Trafficking can include a young person being moved across the same street to a different address for the purpose of exploitation. It doesn't have to include people, children or young people being moved great distances.

Domestic violence	The GSCE (Gloucestershire Safeguarding Children Executive) have published a Domestic Abuse pathway for educational settings which is on the GSCE website. If a child or young person is suspected of living at home with a domestically abusive parent or if a young person has domestic abuse in their own relationship, then the usual procedures should be followed & a referral made to the children's helpdesk (01452 426565). The response will vary according to the age of the young person so that the appropriate agencies are involved. Gloucestershire Domestic Abuse Support Service (GDASS) www.gdass.org.uk MARAC Gloucestershire Constabulary: Multi Agency Risk Assessment Conferences (MARACs) prioritise the safety of victims who have been risk assessed at high or very high risk of harm. The MARAC is an integral part of the Specialist Domestic Violence Court Programme, & information will be shared between the MARAC & the Courts, in high & very high risk cases, as part of the process of risk management. Gloucestershire Unborn Baby Protocol: Research indicates that young babies are particularly vulnerable to abuse but that work carried out in the antenatal period can help minimise harm if there is an early assessment, intervention & support. Working Together (2015) specifically identifies the need of the Unborn Child. Professionals should read & act upon the unborn baby protocol if there is suspected domestic violence & a pregnancy. The unborn baby protocol can be found at www.gscb.org
Sexting	http://www.nspcc.org.uk/preventing-abuse/keeping-children-safe/sexting (NSPCC website). Gloucestershire Police have a small sexual exploitation team. Prevention: 'So you got naked online' (sexting information leaflet produced for pupils by south west grid for learning) included in the Wellbeing (PSHE/SMSC) curriculum. Also shared with parents. Pupils are informed that sexting is illegal but the police have stated that young people should be treated as victims in the first place & not usually face prosecution. The police's priority is those who profit from sexual images of young people....not the victims.
Children who run away (missing persons/missing children)	GSCE Missing Children Protocol http://www.gscb.org.uk: Gloucestershire's protocol on partnership working when children & young people run away & go missing from home or care. ASTRA (Gloucestershire): The ASTRA (Alternative Solutions To Running Away) has the primary aim of reducing the incidence of persistent running away across Gloucestershire. The project provides support, advice & information to young people up to eighteen years' old who have run away. This might be from a family home, foster home or from a residential unit. ASTRA provides support after the event to enable a young person to address the causes of running away. The ASTRA project offers young people help & the support required in order to find Alternative Solutions To Running Away. Freephone Telephone number: 01452 541599.

CME (Children missing education)	Anyone concerned that a child is missing education (CME) can make a referral to the Education Entitlement & Inclusion team (EEI) at Gloucestershire County Council. Tel: 01452 426960/427360. Children Missing Education (CME) refers to 'any child of compulsory school age who is not registered at any formally approved education activity e.g. school, alternative provision, elective home education, & has been out of education provision for at least 4 weeks'. CME also includes those children who are missing (family whereabouts unknown), & are usually children who are registered on a school roll / alternative provision. This might be a child who is not at their last known address & either: has not taken up an allocated school place as expected, or has 10 or more days of continuous absence from school without explanation, or left school suddenly & the destination is unknown. It is the responsibility of the Education Entitlement & Inclusion team, on behalf of the Local Authority (LA), to collate information on all reported cases of CME of statutory school aged children in Gloucestershire maintained schools, academies, free schools, alternative provision academies & Alternative Provision Schools (APS). The EEI Team will also liaise with partner agencies & other LAs & schools across Britain to track pupils who may be missing education & ensure each child missing education is offered full time education within 2 weeks of the date the LA was informed.
Preventing Radicalisation & Extremism/HATE (PREVENT duty)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • www.educateagainsthate.com is the government website providing information & practical advice for parents, teachers & schools leaders on protecting children from radicalisation & extremism. • Gloucestershire Safeguarding Children's Executive www.gscb.org have published a PREVENT pathway for professionals to refer to. • All of teachers have had training in how to spot the signs of radicalisation & extremism & when to refer to the Channel panels. (Online training). • Anti-Terrorist Hotline: 0800 789 321 The 'Advice on the Prevent duty' written by the Department for Education explains what governors & staff can do if they have any concerns relating to extremism. The Department for Education has also set up a telephone helpline (020 7340 7264) to enable people to raise concerns directly. Concerns can also be raised by email to counter.extremism@education.gsi.gov.uk. Prevention: AKS teaches traditional British values through the Wellbeing Curriculum: democracy, rule of law, and respect for others, liberty, tolerance of those with different faiths & beliefs & promotion of 'Britishness'. E-safety is an important aspect of the curriculum to keep pupils safe from radicalisation. Pupils need to understand that radicalisation can be a form of grooming online & understand the notion of propaganda. They need to be taught to be discerning about what they read on the internet as the dangers of speaking to strangers online. AKS also seeks to equip parents with the knowledge of how to safeguard their children from radicalisation. Let's talk about it is an excellent website for parents www.ltai.info/ as is www.preventtragedies.co.uk While it remains very rare for school age children to become involved in extremist activity to the point of committing criminal acts, young people can be exposed to extremist influences or prejudiced views, including via the internet, from an early age. As with other forms of criminality or risk of harm, early intervention is always preferable. Schools, working with other local partners, families & communities, can help support pupils who may be vulnerable as part of wider safeguarding responsibilities.
